Open Morning

Open morning on Wednesday 19th September is an opportunity for parents, relatives and friends to come and spend the morning in school with their children. As the children move around from class to class and activity to activity you are welcome to move with them and get a really good feel for what your child's day in school is like.

The morning will start at 8am with a brief presentation from Teacher Laure (our IPC coordinator) about the children's learning through the International Primary Curriculum and you are also welcome to join the Senior Leadership Team for coffee at 10.15am. We are looking forward to welcoming you to school and of course the children always love seeing their parents in school - maybe even facing the challenge of number club!

Message from the Head of School

Open Morning on Wednesday 19th September will start with a short workshop from Teacher Laure about the IPC and how it is improving learning at Ambrosoli.

It is a wonderful, active and engaging curriculum for 21st Century learners and your children truly enjoy it. This year we will be working towards gaining our accreditation from the IPC so you will be hearing a lot more as the year goes on. Please come along to our Open Morning and find out more before visiting your child/ren in their classroom and joining in with their learning.

Spare a thought for our teaching staff tomorrow who are all giving up their Saturday to take part in training from our IPC visitor in order to continue to make this curriculum exciting, engaging and rigorous for the children. Thank you teachers and learning assistants.
