

Well qualified and experienced Primary Teacher

Ambrosoli International School, Kampala, Uganda

Vision : Empowering pupils to become confident, compassionate and internationally minded learners.

Ambrosoli International School is one of the leading international schools in Uganda offering the EYFS, English National Curriculum and International Primary Curriculum (IPC) to students in Early Years and Primary.

The school is a successful, unique, 'boutique' school well supported by the governors and located in a quiet, green suburb of Kampala. It enjoys a diverse population of students and a strong sense of community and support from its Ugandan and international families.

Ambrosoli is accredited by the Council of International Schools (CIS) and is a member of the Association of International Schools in Africa (AISA) offering opportunities for professional growth.

The role:

Ambrosoli International School seeks an exceptional, well qualified and experienced primary teacher to join our team in August 2019.

The successful candidate will demonstrate a dynamic and creative approach to teaching and have the necessary skills and vision to enhance learning and teaching in the primary school. Ambrosoli is an inclusive school and with a high proportion of EAL learners ,therefore, candidates should also illustrate a capacity to help all of our students to achieve their best. A willingness to contribute to the thriving extra curricula life of the school is also required.

We are seeking a professional who:-

- Has an internationally recognised teaching qualification at least two years teaching experience in a British or international school
- Has experience of teaching the IPC
- Offers enthusiasm and a positive attitude
- Promotes an enjoyable, well organised and inspiring learning environment
- Is reflective and continually strives to improve performance
- Is confident in sharing classroom practice, educational theories and ideas with their peers
- Is excited about 21st century education and ambitious in terms of improved classroom practice and potential leadership opportunities.

We will provide:-

- A salary commensurate with qualifications and experience and the cost of living in Uganda
- An initial 2 year contract
- A flight from your home country to Uganda at the beginning of your contract and from Uganda back to your home country at the end of your contract.
- Medical insurance
- A professionally stimulating and supportive working environment
- The opportunity to live and work in a culturally diverse community
- Opportunities, in due course, for promotion to middle or senior management for the right candidate.

Applications

The closing date is Saturday 30th March although early applications are strongly encouraged. Applications should include a current CV and letter of application which includes your philosophy and vision of 21st century education and how you feel that your qualifications and experience would make you the perfect fit for our team. Please email to headteacher@ambrosolischool.com. Interviews for short listed candidates will be held in Uganda, London and/or via Skype for candidates applying from overseas.

Ambrosoli International School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Applicants must be prepared to undergo stringent child protection screening including references and checks with current and past employers and an enhanced DBS and local police checks.

Further information can be found on our website www.ambrosolischool.com or by emailing the head of school on the address above.